A Lasting Legacy

rrm.co.uk

Whether you have a love of rowing, for the river Thames or for the town of Henley, leaving a legacy or a gift in memory is the perfect way to show your lasting support to the River & Rowing Museum.

We are an independent museum and a registered charity (no.1001051) which means we receive no government funding. We have to rely heavily on donations, not only to achieve our objectives through our permanent collections, as well as our exhibition and education programme, but also to safeguard the Museum for future generations.

You do not have to be wealthy to leave a legacy, any size of gift makes a crucial contribution to the continued success of the Museum. They allow us to fund educational programmes for special needs and under-privileged groups, vital conservation work and new acquisitions that will enhance our permanent collections. No legacy income is spent on overheads – it is used right at the heart of the Museum's work.

What your gift can do:

Educate and Inspire

£500 pays for a 'Learning outside the Classroom' opportunity for 2 inner city school classes.

Conserve

£1,000 will help conserve any recently donated items, such as an engineer's notebook containing original plans for Henley bridge c.1782.

Acquire

£2,500 to the acquisition fund will enable us to help purchase important objects to grow our collections.

Enhance

£5,000 will enhance the Invesco Perpetual Henley Gallery by creating a new display telling of Henley's experience of the two World Wars.

Fulfill

£10,000 will provide resources to greatly improve access to the collections for people with visual and hearing impairments and those with learning difficulties.
