

Henley History: a Sense of Place

Object Descriptions - Travel to Henley

The Pocket Hoof Pick

A hoof pick was a vital piece of equipment carried by the stagecoach guard or postillion, they would have also been used by ostlers and blacksmiths to dig out sharp stones or debris from the road which might have caused a horse to go lame.

This hoof pick can fold in two, enabling it to be kept in a pocket safely.